

ENTRY SAVES 3 ADRIFT IN LAUNCH

Cries for Help Heard at Fort Wadsworth as Tide Drags Craft Toward Sea.

Cries for help from the Narrows attracted the attention of a sentry at Fort Wadsworth early to-day and Col. Harding ordered Privates Smith and Hamilton to investigate. After a search of an hour they took in tow a disabled 30-foot launch containing Capt. John Atkinson, John West and Max Tress, of the Hotel St. George, Brooklyn. The boat was towed from near Swinburne Island to the fort.

2 AMERICANS TO BE FLOGGED

Seamen Sentenced in Liverpool to Jail, With 18 Lashes, for Robbery.

LONDON, June 15.—James Harper and James Dunne, Americans, presumably seamen, were sentenced to six months at hard labor and eighteen strokes with the "cat" at Liverpool yesterday, for robbery with violence. Imposition of flogging sentences has been fairly frequent in England in the last
